Defendant's name and address

NOTE: MCL 552.604(3); MSA 25.164(4)(3) requires that all new and modified support orders after December 31, 1990 include a provision for immediate income withholding and that income withholding take effect immediately unless the parties enter into a written agreement that the income withholding order shall not take effect immediately.

We understand that by law an order of income withholding in a support order shall take effect immediately. However, we agree to the following:

1. The order of income withholding shall not take effect immediately.
2. An alternative payment arrangement shall be made as follows:
3. Both the payer and the recipient of support shall keep the friend of the court informed of the following:
 - a. the name, address, and telephone number of his/her current source of income;
 - b. any health care coverage that is available to him/her as a benefit of employment or that is maintained by him/her; the name of the insurance company, health care organization, or health maintenance organization; the policy, certificate or contract number; and the name(s) and birth date(s) of the person(s) for whose benefit s/he maintains health care coverage under the policy, certificate, or contract; and
 - c. his/her current residence and mailing address.
4. We further understand that proceedings to implement income withholding shall commence if the payer of support falls one month behind in his/her support payments.
5. We recognize that the court may order withholding of income to take effect immediately for cause or at the request of the payer.
